

Indigenous Plants for Health Association (Inc)

"Awareness, Research & Development of Indigenous Plant-Based Products"

A Community Not for Profit Association

The rare Wallangarra gum at Foxbar Falls

Indigenous Plants for Health Foxbar Falls Field Weekend

Sat-Sun, 19-20th November 2022
Held at Foxbar Falls Campground,
Amiens SE Qld

Full cost. incl. meals (not breakfast), morning and afternoon teas $120 pp. (IPHA Members $100). Children 5-16yrs $60.
To register visit <https://indigenousplantsforhealth.com/>

Foxbar Falls is a private campground in a bush and lake setting on a 200-acre working farm in the granite-belt country, 20 minutes drive west of Stanthorpe.

Registrants can book campsites at discounted prices: Powered sites $15 / night Unpowered sites: $12.50 / night IPHA can provide tents, please request upon registration. The event will be held at the Rock View campsite.

For further information on Foxbar Falls and camping bookings: <https://www.foxbarfalls.com.au/>

Confirmed presenters

Dr. Andrew Pengelly - IPHA President

Sophie Ader - Uniquely Australian Foods, University of Queensland

Dr. Rod Fensham - Plant Ecologist, Qld. Herbarium

Melissa Thomas - Washpool Soapery and Skincare Wellness

Kerrie Stokes - Herbalists without Borders

Denise and Alec Harslett - Hosts at Foxbar Falls

PLUS Guided wildflower walk with the Stanthorpe Rare Wildflower Consortium

Botanical marketplace - books, herbal products etc. and seed/plant exchange session

Swim or kayak in the lakes, or just relax